Geo. W. Graffin
to
Frank C. Fishburne

Lease. State of South Carolina.

This Indenture made this twenty eight day of October A.D. 1882. by and between George W. Graffin Trustee of the city of Baltimore and State of Maryland party of the first part and Frank C. Fishburne of the city of Charleston State aforesaid of the second part, Witnesseth. That the party of the first part for and in consideration of the covenants herein after expressed and agreed on the part of the party of the second part has granted demised leased and by these presents doth grant and lease unto the party of the second part all and singular that tract of land being and situated in the County of Colleton and State of South Carolina on the East Bank of the Edisto River commonly known as the Baring Tract being the same as was conveyed by Constance H. Baring and Alexander Baring to the said party of the first part by deed dated the 2nd day of August A.D. 1881 which deed is recorded in the Register Conveyance Office for Colleton County at Walterboro in Book P. page 199 also the buildings Machinery Engines and Boilers and all the other personal property now on said leased premises more particularly described in a schedule hereto annexed which schedule is hereby made a part of this agreement To have and to hold the said Premises and the said Personal Property to him the said party of the second part his Executors & administrators & and for the full term of ten years beginning the first day of November A.D. 1882 and ending on the first day of November A.D. 1892 with full power to the said party of the second part during the continuance of this Lease to dig mine and remove the Phosphate Rock and Phosphate deposits upon the said premises and the same to sell and otherwise dispose of as to the said party of the second part may seem best and with full full power to said party of the second part to cut and use all wood and timber that may be necessary or suitable for building or fuel to be used in his mining operations during the continuance thereof. The said party of the second part for and in consideration of the premises and of said leased premises doth covenant and agree to pay to the party of the first part a royalty of one dollar for each and every ton of phosphate rock of phosphate deposits dug mined or removed from the said premises during the continuance of this lease. Said rock excepted the said royalty to be paid as aforesaid as phosphate rock to the amount of five hundred tons shall have been shipped or removed from the leased premises. And also that until all the phosphate rock in all the leased premises which according to the condition of this lease the party of the second part is required to dig, mine or remove shall have been exhausted he will dig, mine and remove not less than the following quantities of rock in each year, that is to say, not less than one thousand five hundred tons of phosphate rock during the first year of this lease, not less than two thousand five hundred tons during the second year, not less than three thousand five hundred tons during the third year, not less than four thousand five hundred tons during the fourth year, not less than five thousand five hundred tons during the fifth year of this lease or if he should fail in any one year to dig mine and remove the minimum quantity herein required to be dug mined and removed in that year unless the said rock shall have been exhausted as aforesaid then and in that case the party of the second part covenants to pay to the party of the first part before the commencement of another year of this lease the said royalty agreed to be paid in an amount equal to the minimum quantity of phosphate rock and phosphate deposits which which should have been dug mined or removed during that year. And the party of the second part further covenants and agrees that he will mine the said leased premises in a regular and systematic manner within unnecessary waste or abandonment whenever the top of the bed of rock is not more than five feet and six inches under the surface and the stratum not less than six inches thick, It being understood by the parties hereto that the said party of the second part shall not be required to mine rock lying under trees which measures more than eighteen inches thick — three feet from the ground. And it is also understood by and between the parties hereto that if in the process of mining and [illegible]

at which the party of the second part claims he is not required to mine under the condition of this Lease then and in that case the said party of the second part is to give immediate notice in writing to the party of the first part that he proposes to pass over such area whereupon said party of the first part shall have the right and he is hereby authorized to enter upon the leased premises and if he so desires cause the area to be sur=veyed and examined with a view to verifying its condition and if upon such examination and survey had, difference shall arise as to whether the said party of the second part is required to mine the same under the conditions of this Lease then and in that case all such differences shall be decided by two disinterested persons as arbitrators chosen by the said parties one by each and in case of disagree=ment by said arbitrators they to choose a third and a decision by a majority of them shall be binding on the parties hereto. And it is also agreed that during the progress of such arbitration the party of the second part shall have the right to mine some other part of the premises. And it is understood and agreed that the party of the second part is not to be liable required to mine the de=posits of Phosphate rock near Perry Creek but is at liberty to do so if he desires Provided however that if he begins mining there then such mining is to be in each and every particular governed by the provisions and Covenants of this Lease. And it is further agreed by the party of the first part that the party of the second part shall have the exclusive privilege during the continuance of this Lease of using the present machinery and plant for the cleaning and delivery of rock whether mine on said premises or elsewhere and in consequence of said party of the second part covenants and agrees to pay to the said party of the first part the sum of twenty five cents for each and every ton of Phosphate rock or phosphate deposits which being dug elsewhere than on said premises shall be cleaned and washed by means of the washer now on said leased premises and by any washer hereafter erected thereon by said party of the second part during the continuance of this Lease said payments to be made in manner as is provided in paragraph II of this agreement. Provided how=ever that this privilege shall not be so exercised as to reduce the output of rock from the leased premises below the normal capacity of the present plant estimated to the purposes of this covenant at six thousand tons of clean ore per annum and it is further understood and agreed that the said party of the second part shall have the right to construct and erect on said leased premises any buildings machinery tramways or other works for the purpose of his buildings which he may deem necessary and that he may at the termination of this lease remove such buildings, machinery and minerals which may have been brought on the premises by him. The removal to be made within thirty days from the termination of this lease and without unnecessary injury to the premises it being understood that the party of the second part is to make no alterations in the engine boilers pumping machinery or buildings on said leased premises without the written consent of the party of the first part. And the said party of the second part covenants and agrees that the said party of the first part shall have a lien on all phosphate rock phosphate deposits dug or mined and removed River Rock excepted from said leased premises and upon all phosphate rock cleaned and washed on said premises for the said royalty agreed to be paid thereon but it is understood and agreed that such lien is to be released by the party of the first part upon the party of the second part acquiring and pledging other security satisfactory and approved by the party of the first part. And the party of the second part further covenants and agrees that he will at his own expense and during the continuance of this lease repair and keep repaired and in good condition and order the machinery engines and boilers and other personal property in said mines which are mentioned and return the same in like good condition and order (reasonable wear and tear only excepted) at the expiration or earlier termination of this lease unto the said party of the first part his executors administrators and assigns. And the party of the second part for himself his Executors and Administrators covenants and agrees that he or they will not assign this lease or underlet the premises or any part thereof except as hereinafter mentioned or any of its appurtenances without the written consent of the said party of the first part first had and obtained. And it is hereby further covenanted and agreed by and between the said parties that if the said parties of the second part shall fail to pay the royalty agreed to be paid in Paragraph II of this agreement or shall fail to pay the royalty agreed to be paid in Paragraph V

of this Lease in a period of ninety days after the same shall at any time be due and payable or if there shall be default by the said party of the second part in any of the covenants or conditions of this Lease and the same shall continue for the space of ninety days then, and in that case this agreement and Lease shall terminate and the said party of the first part shall have the right to enter in and take possession of the said leased premises and all buildings machinery, tramways, cars or other personal property which may have been placed on said leased premises by the party of the second part and the said buildings, machinery, tramways and and other personal property to hold as a security for unpaid royalty or any liability or damage the party of the first part might satisfy by reason of the breach of any of the covenants herein made by the party of the second part without hindrance or prejudice to Lessors right to obtain for any royalty that may be due and unpaid and it is further understood and agreed that in case the phosphate rock on the leased premises required to be mined by the Lessee according to the conditions of the Lease shall have been exhausted in any year before the expiration of the term of ten years herein before mentioned then this Lease shall terminate at the expiration of that year Provided however that in such case the Lessee shall have the privilege of holding the leased premises machinery &c until expiration of said full term of ten years if he shall have erected thereon an additional washer or shall have built an iron road to the borders of the leased premises or to the creek deposit or shall pay to the party of the first part in lieu of royalty the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum on a lease on said leased premises and chattels thereafter during the continuance of this Lease And it is further agreed that Lessee shall have the right to use the leased premises for keeping of cattle and other live stock, and to sublet the same for such purposes. A. W. Smith County Auditor
Of Colleton County } Deed
To Louisa Hutto

State of South Carolina
Colleton County. Whereas by section 100 of an act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina entitled an act to reduce all acts and parts of acts fronting for the assessment and taxation of property into one act and to amend the same approved March 14th 1874 it is provided that each County Auditor in this State shall annually cause the list of delinquent taxes in the County to be published weekly for two weeks between the 1st of February and the second Monday in March following in one newspaper and one time published in this County: and if no paper be published in said County then in some newspaper having the most general circulation in said County, to which list there shall be attached a notice in the following form to wit: Notice is hereby given that the whole of the several parcels lots and parts of lots of real estate described in the preceding list or so much thereof as will be necessary to pay the taxes penalties and assessments charged thereon will be sold by Treasurer of Colleton County South Carolina at his Office in said County South Carolina after office on the second Monday of March A.D. 1881 unless said taxes assessments and penalties be paid before that time: and said sale will be continued from day to day until all of said parcels lots and parts of lots of real estate shall be sold as offered for sale And whereas the affidavit of Jos. DuPre Cater of Colleton County for the Year 188 Certain real estate of one hundred acres more or less assessed in the name of Louisa E. Stiles and valued at one hundred and eighty seven dollars the taxes assessments and penalties charged thereon amounting to five and 5/100 dollars: And whereas the above named Louisa E. Stiles neglected to pay to the County Treasurer of Colleton County the above taxes assessments and penalties as prescribed by law: And whereas in accordance with the provisions of an act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina entitled "An Act" the Comptroller General extended the time for the advertisement and sale of the delinquent lands in Colleton County so that the sale thereof might be held on the ____ day of ____ A.D. and the County Auditor of ____ County pursuant thereto advertised the above described property in the Colleton Press it being the County Paper as delinquent lands to be sold by the County Treasurer of Colleton County on that day: And whereas at a sale so held by the County Treasurer of Colleton County on the ____ day Louisa Stiles offering to pay the amount of the taxes assessments and penalties charged on the above described property for the least quantity thereof to wit. Five and three quarters (5¾) Quarter of an acre became the purchaser and having paid the said amount into the County Treasury a certificate of purchase for the quantity so sold was given to him accordingly: And whereas by section 116 of the act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina first above mentioned it is provided that after the lapse of ninety days from the time of any delinquent land sale if any purchaser of any real estate at such sale or his legal representative shall present to the Auditor of the County in which such sale was made a Certificate of purchase of the whole of any tract or lot of real estate sold at such sale or in case of the sale of part of a tract or a lot offered at such sale present to said Auditor the Certificate of sale and the survey and plat of the quantity so chosen made by the surveyor as required by this act and the taxes and assessments levied on the real estate described in such Certificate or Certificates and plat shall have been fully paid as that the same is not again delinquent said Auditor shall (upon payment to him of ____ as his fees for so doing) make and deliver to said purchaser his heirs or assigns as the case may be a Deed of Conveyance for the real estate so sold as aforesaid. And Whereas the period of ninety one days elapsed under the sale so held as aforesaid the said Louisa Stuttz has presented the said Certificate of purchase to the County Auditor of Colleton County and the taxes and assessments levied on the real estate described therein have been fully paid as that the same is not again delinquent. Now therefore I J.W. Smith County Auditor of the County of Colleton in consideration of the premises and in further consideration of the sum of five Dollars good and lawful money of the United States of America to me in hand paid by the said Louisa Stuttz have granted bargained sold and released and by these presents do grant bargain sell and release unto the said Louisa Stuttz all that certain tract of land situate in Dorchester Township County of Colleton and State aforesaid containing one hundred acres more or less the quantity aforesaid to wit-

Together with all and singular the rights members hereditaments and appurtenances to the said premises belonging or in anywise incident or appertaining; to have and to hold all and singular the premises hereby granted with the appurtenances unto the said Louisa Stuttz her heirs and assigns forever according to the form force and effect of the laws and usages of the State of South Carolina in such case made and provided. The State of South Carolina

County of Colleton. This indenture made and concluded at Adams Run Station on the Charleston and Savannah Railway in the County and State aforesaid this 24th day of April 1883 by and between Julia Stuckenbrock (wife of Frank Stuckenbrock merchant) the Lessor on the first part and Elenita E. Heyward the Lessee on the second part. Witnesseth that the said Julia Stuckenbrock hath granted and leased and by these presents do grant and lease unto the said Elenita E. Heyward the lot of land owned by her at the said Station in the aforesaid County and State with all the appurtenances thereto belonging including the good will for store Keeping. To have and to hold the said premises unto the said Elenita E. Heyward her executors administrators and assigns for the full term of one year with the privilege of extending the same for three more consecutive years (provided the said Elenita E. Heyneman gives to the said Julia Steckenbrook notice in writing two months previous to the expiration of the said first year of her intention to keep the premises the two succeeding years) commencing on the 20th day of May 1883 and ending on the 20th day of May 1884. Yielding and paying therefor at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars for the first year payable as follows viz: One hundred and twenty dollars on the 20th day of May 1883, and one hundred and twenty dollars on the 20th day of November 1883, and for the succeeding years if the premises are retained by the said Lessee, at the rate of two hundred and twenty five dollars per annum payable in equal instalments every six months commencing on the 20th day of May 1884. And the said Elenita E. Heyneman her executors administrators and assigns for and in consideration of the above written premises, doth covenant and agree to pay to the said Julia Steckenbrook her executors administrators and assigns the above stipulated rent in manner herein prescribed and it is further agreed that unless two months notice in writing be given previous to the expiration of the period herein mentioned (namely at the end of the fourth year) by the Lessee to the Lessor of his desire to have possession of the premises or to change the condition of the Lease after such expiration, or the like notice be given by the Lessor to the Lessee of his intention to vacate the premises after such expiration. Then it is hereby agreed that this Lease will be considered as extended and binding for one year after such expiration and so continue from year to year until such notice be given by either party previous to the expiration of such extended time. But the destruction of the premises by fire or by any other casualty shall terminate this agreement. And it is mutually understood that the Lessee shall make no repairs at the expense of the Lessor and any alterations or improvements desired by the Lessee at his own cost must be done under the written sanction of the Lessor. And all such alterations or improvements shall be surrendered to the Lessor on the Lessee's removal. And it is further stipulated and understood by the parties to these presents that if six months rent shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid the Lessor shall have the right to cancel and terminate this lease and it shall be lawful for him to enter and forthwith to repossess all and singular the above granted and leased premises. To all whom it may concern, I hereby certify, that the following is an extract from minutes of a special meeting of the "Summerville Presbyterian Church" held on the 20th February 1884 - Mr W Geo Gibbs from the committee of two appointed to sell vacant lot and see after repairs to the Parsonage, reported as follows:

The Committee appointed at the last meeting of the corporation to superintend the repairs and improvements of the Parsonage and of the Church, would report, that they have discharged that duty to the full satisfaction of the Pastor, at an expense of about $397. They have taken steps to sell the lot of land in Summerville belonging to the Church, as then agreed upon, the proceeds of the sale being sufficient to discharge the cost of repairs to Parsonage and Church and they would recommend the corporation authorize the President and Secretary of the Corporation to sign Title to said Sale.
On motion of Mr McNeill the report was received as information.
Whereupon, Mr Johnson offered a resolution, "That the President and Secretary are hereby authorized and empowered to execute the Deed of Conveyance to perfect the Sale, in accordance with recommendation of Committee, which motion was unanimously adopted"
