State of South Carolina.

To all whom these Presents shall come, Mr. Duncan C. Wilson, George Waterhouse, of Bon-ford South Carolina, and William M. Bird and Henry P. Walker of Charleston South Carolina, Send Greeting: Whereas the said Duncan C. Wilson, George Waterhouse, William M. Bird and Henry P. Walker, are owners as tenants in common of the property hereinafter described and intended. And Whereas the said Parties by an agreement, dated the 2nd day of May, 1892, have granted unto J. J. Cummings of Bradford South Carolina a right of entering in and upon the said property, for the purpose of conducting a general saw mill and Rail Road Business as will fully appear upon reference to the said agreement. And Whereas the said Parties may desire from time to time hereafter, to sell and convey the whole or various parts of the aforesaid property, to different persons, subject, however, to the timber rights heretofore granted to the said J. J. Cummings; and it has been found difficult and inconvenient to have the said deed signed by all of the aforesaid four Parties as they may be needed and it is, therefore, thought best that the said property should be conveyed in trust to one of the said Parties, to wit, Duncan C. Wilson for the purpose of selling and conveying the same from time to time as may be agreed upon and as shall be directed. Now Know all men by these
