of the first part its successors or assigns will not sell lease or dispose of the said premises or any part thereof or the machinery therein without the consent in writing of the said party of the second part its successors or assigns. And the said party of the first part its successors or assigns will not sell lease or dispose of the said premises or any part thereof or the machinery therein without the consent in writing of the said party of the second part its successors or assigns. And the said party of the first part its successors

are fully paid & satisfied, and they shall apply the money so received by them, first, to the expences of the trust hereby created, the management of the said mill and its appurtenances, and such repairs thereof as may be needed to keep the same in good working order; next, to the payment of interest now due upon the bonds hereby secured, with interest upon delayed interest, and afterwards, to the payment of the principal of the said bonds.

Fourth. That the said Trustees upon becoming entitled to take possession of the said mill and property aforesaid, may, in their discretion, and shall on the written request of the holders of any one or more of the bonds hereby secured, then unpaid and outstanding, sell the said premises so mortgaged, to be sold at public auction, in the City of Charleston for cash or upon credit, to the highest bidder, giving at least sixty days notice of the time and place, and terms of such sale, and of the specific property to be sold, by publishing such notice in one newspaper in said City of Charleston, once in each week during the said term of sixty days; and that upon receiving the purchase money therefor, the said Trustees shall execute to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed of conveyance in fee simple; which said conveyance shall forever be a bar against the party of the first part, its successors and assigns, & all persons claiming under them, of all right, estate, interest or claim, in or to the premises, property and things granted, or any part thereof, whether the said Trustees are in possession thereof or not; and the receipt of the said Trustees shall be a good & sufficient discharge to such purchaser, and no purchaser holding such receipt shall be liable for the proper application of the purchase money, or in any way bound to see that the same is applied to the uses of this trust, or in any manner answerable for its loss or misapplication tion, or bound to inquire into the authority for making such sale.

Fifth- That the said Trustee shall, after deducting from the proceeds of such sale the costs and expenses thereof, and of the execution of this Trust, and all payments for Taxes, assessments and county fees, and their own reasonable compensation, apply so much of the proceeds as may be necessary to the payment of the principal and interest remaining unpaid upon the said bonds and coupons, together with interest upon any due interest, down to the time of sale, without giving preference to either principal or interest, it being the intention of this Indenture that during the time the said premises and appurtenances shall be managed by the Trustee or a Receiver as a going concern, the income shall be applied to the payment of interest, in preference to the principal, but that after a sale of the said realty and appurtenances, no such preference shall be made in the distribution of the proceeds.

Sixth- That upon any sale of the said premises whether by the Trustee or under judicial process the holders of the bonds hereby secured, or any of them, or the said Trustee, in behalf of all the bondholders, shall have the right to purchase upon equal terms with other persons; and it shall be the duty of the said Trustee, if so requested, in writing, at a reasonable time before such sale, by the holders of one half in amount of the outstanding bonds hereby secured, and upon being offered at the same time adequate indemnity against all liability to be incurred thereby, to make such purchase in behalf of the bondholders, at an amount not exceeding the whole amount of principal and interest due or accruing upon said bonds, together with the expenses of the proceeding & sale. And the bonds secured by this mortgage shall be receivable at such sale as cash, for the amount of cash which would be payable on such bonds out of the proceeds of such sale.

Seventh - That in case after purchase of such property, or any part thereof, by the said Trustees, under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the same shall be held for the benefit of all the bondholders in proportion to their respective interests in the bonds, on the day of sale, and the property thus purchased shall be conveyed to such persons or corporations as may be designated by them jointly in value after bondholders present, either in person or by attorney, at a meeting of such bondholders, in the City of Philadelphia regularly called by the Trustees, upon reasonable public notice, published in one newspaper of that City, provided that such conveyance shall be made upon such terms as will in the judgement of said Trustees secure to each and every bondholder his just proportion of interest in the property purchased, as aforesaid.

Eighth - That in no case shall any claim benefit, or advantage be taken by the party of the first part, its successors or assigns, of any valuation appraisement, extension or relief laws, to prevent such sale or sale as aforesaid, and nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the right of said Trustees to apply to the Court for judgement or decree of foreclosure and sale under this Indenture or for the usual relief in the Course of such proceedings, and the said Trustees may, in their discretion, apply to any Competent Court for relief, by way of foreclosure or otherwise if so advised by Counsel, instead of taking possession of or selling the said property when required to do so by the bondholders - Ninth - That the party of the first part its successors and assigns, shall and will, make, execute and deliver to the parties of the second part, and their succession in the trust, all such further deeds, instruments and assurances as may from time to time be necessary, or as to the parties of the second part, or their successors in the trust, may be advised by Counsel learned in the law to be necessary for the better securing to the parties of the second part, and the successors of them, or any of them, in the trust, the premises hereby conveyed, and for carrying out the objects and purposes of this Indenture. Fourth - That upon the payment of the principal and interest of all the bonds hereby secured, at any time before a sale of the said premises under such foreclosure by the Trustee aforesaid, the estate hereby granted to the parties of the second part shall be void, and the right to all the real and personal property hereby conveyed, shall revert to and revest in the party of the first part, its successors or assigns, in law and in equity - without any acknowledgement of satisfaction conveyance, surrender, release, or other act. Fifthly, That any of the parties of the second part, or of their successors may resign his trust, and shall be discharged from all liability as Trustee thereafter accruing, upon delivering his resignation in writing, subscribed by his own hand to his Co Trustees, and to the President or Secretary of the party of the first part its successors or assigns or to the person acting for the time being as such, Except in the case of the resignation, death, permanent removal from the United States, removal from office or incapacity that may arise of the said Trustees, a successor or successors shall be at once appointed to fill such vacancy by the remaining or remaining trustee or trustees, with the consent of a majority of the Board of Directors of the party of the first part or its successors or assigns: and in case of Trustee or trustees or removal by a majority of said Board of Directors, That if such vacancy is not filled within thirty days after it occurs any competent Court may appoint a Trustee or Trustees to fill such vacancy or disposing ments which compensation shall be paid by the party of the first part its successors and assigns and also be a charge and payable out of any funds coming into the hands of the party of the second part or their successors in the trust hereby created. That no one of the parties of the second part or their successors shall be in any case be held individually liable for any act or default of the other or of any agent or person employed by him or them in any capacity
