Opened

The State of South Carolina

Whereas W.M. Brailsford late of the County of Colleton State aforesaid, departed this life, seized and possessed of a certain plantation or tract of land hereinafter more fully described leaving in full force and effect his last will and testament, in which he provides as follows, to wit: "It is my desire to sell my plantation in said township before I die, but should I not do so, then my executor will do so, at such time as he may think most advantageous, the time of sale not to be extended beyond three years after my death"; and whereas by his said last will and testament he constituted and appointed A.M. Brailsford sole executor of his said last will and testament, and whereas in pursuance of said power and provision in said last will and testament, on the day of January A.D. 1888 after due advertisement in the public papers the said plantation was sold at public auction in the City of Charleston, and whereas at said sale the said A.M. Brailsford was the highest and last bidder, and said plantation was knocked down to him as the purchaser thereof for the sum of Fifteen hundred dollars, and whereas the said A.M. from the date of the said deed - And Whereas we the parties of the second part are the only individuals Realms of the said James Legare the interest of the Reverend John Douglas having passed by his will to his Widow Frances C Douglas and by her will to her nieces the said Elizabeth Legare Phenix and Minna Legare Mahon. And Whereas the said tracts of land have been planted and leased out but without success and the only lessees that for many years have been or now can be obtained are negroes and the rents collected have been very small. And whereas the said tracts of land have been more than once exposed for Sale at Auction and no bid whatever or no bids that was deemed acceptable have ever been obtained therefore. And though the said tracts of land for many years have been, and now are on the market for private sale and there is no offer for the same. And whereas the half of the plantation hereinafter designated as the "Whaley tract" containing five hundred and fifty (550) acres belongs to William James Whaley and Edwin Whaley the heirs of the late William James Whaley deceased whose claim against the assigned estate of James Legare was compromised by the surrender to him of the said half of the said "Whaley tract" he having a lien there of for the purchase money there of, to wit: One thousand dollars with large arrearages of interest the said lien having arisen from the agreement between the said James Legare deceased and the said William James Whaley deceased that while the said James Legare should go into possession of said tract no title deed to the same should pass until the said purchase money had been paid. And the purchase money never having been paid and no title deed of said tract ever having been executed by said William James Whaley to said James Legare - And Whereas the said Henry E Young being anxious to close a trust that has lasted so many, (Seventeen 17) years and which has been executed as to all other property which came into his hands and fully accomplished for in all respects has recently bought from aforesaid William James Whaley and Edwin Whaley their half of the said "Whaley tract" for the sum of Seven hundred and fifty (750) dollars and has offered to us, the parties of the second part to buy the other undivided half part of the said tract at the same price, to wit: Seven hundred and fifty (750) dollars Cash and the aforesaid adjoining on "Sam King tract" (the only other piece of said Estate property remaining undisposed of) Containing one hundred and sixty eight acres and four tenths of an acre (168 4/10) for Four hundred and sixty two (462) dollars Cash being the same price per acre as paid for the said "Whaley tract" the said Henry E Young having waived his commission of seven and one half per cent (7½%) as assignee and we the parties after secured paid having accepted the offer of the said H E Young and having instructed him to carry out said sale -

Now therefore Know all men that the said Henry E Young assignee in Consideration of the premises and of the sum of Twelve Hundred and twelve (1212) dollars to him as assignee paid hath granted bargained sold and released and by these presents doth grant bargain sell and release unto the said Elizabeth Legare Phenix Minna Legare Mahon Anna C Missroon Susan J Fuller M N Schultz I B Burden Elise L Moore Thomas B Elliott All the undivided one half part (½) of all that plantation or tract of land situate lying and being upon Slanns Island in Saint Pauls Parish Colleton County and State aforesaid Commonly Known as the "Whaley Tract" and formerly as the "Glover Tract" Containing Five hundred (500) acres of high land and acres of Marsh land more or less Butting and Bounding North on little Toogoodoo Creek, to the East on Lands now or late of Ellen Legare Commonly Known as "Jenkins Tract" to the South on Dawhoo River and to the West on Lands formerly of James Legare generally Known as the "Sam King Tract"

And also all that other plantation or tract of land situated lying and being on Slanns Island St Pauls Parish State aforesaid adjoining the tract last above described and commonly Known as the Sam King tract. Containing and Containing One hundred and Six 6 4/10 (168 4/10) acres of high land and acres of Marsh land more or less Butting and Bounding to the North on to the East on Lands late of James Legare commonly called "the Whaley tract" to the South on Dawhoo River and to the West on Lands of Mrs Sydney A Lagare -
